

Klase Family Album

Revised 12 Jan 2009

Alan R. Klase al@ar88.net

Adda, Elwood, and (William) Henry Klase
About 1918

Elwood Klase

Eugene Stauffer, Elwood Klase,
and Teddy (Does anyone remember double exposures?)

"Grandma Klase"
(Adda) with
Reid Seiwel
about 1926

Thelma and Grover Seiwel

Jim, Gert, and Shirley Hauze

Elwood at work ca. 1939

Lois & Elwood 1939

Atlantic City August

Honeymooning in Gettysburg

Lois, Easter 1940

New Orleans 1942

March - April 1943

Jim Hauze, Elwood, and Troy Lindenmuth

Lucretia Lindenmuth
Shirly and Gert Hauze

The Jacob Roth Family—Standing: Minnie, Day, Irvin, Foster, Myrtle
Seated: Jacob, Gertrude, Ruth

Agustus Berge with August, Anna Martha, and Sophia Reinmold Berge
Early 1890's

"Martha" and "Gus"

Might be Gus

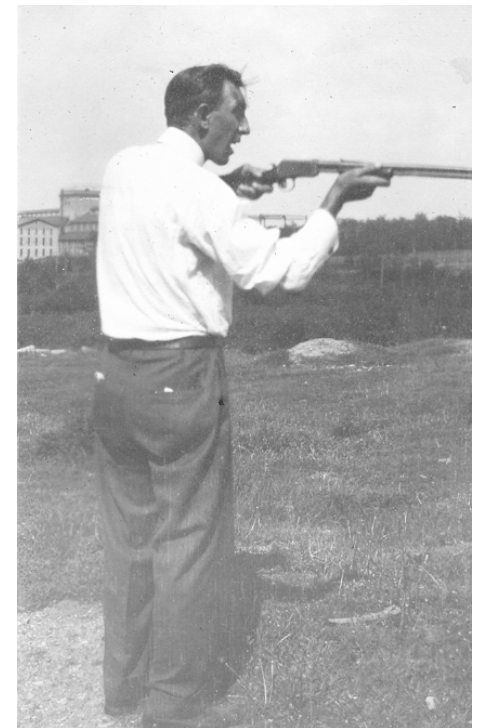

Foster and Martha

Graduation?

Decoration Day 1914

Lois

Jean, Lois, and Foster Jr. ca 1926

Joyce, Martha, Foster, Jr. and Foster
October 1939

The Cabin

Lois, July 1939

Foster bought a piece of land in Drums, Pa., not far from Hazelton. There he built a modest cabin. It actually started out as a tool shed and grew room by room. This was the scene of a lot of summer activities for many years. In fact both Foster, Jr. and Joyce married into the Balliet family, whose farm was nearby. Foster's sister Gertrude (Aunt Gertie) and her husband Harry Kishbaugh had a cabin on an adjoining lot. The neighboring cabins were owned by the Kreigers and the Kemps. The Roberts family had a permanent home nearby. Fosters brother Day also lived in the same valley.

Back of picture says this is Bobby Roth, Harrison Kishbach, Donald Waldron, and Foster Roth, Jr. Who's who, and who's the fifth guy?

Junior and Jean, July 1939
Uncle Harry's cabin is in the background.

Swimming

Lorraine Slowitsky
A friend from Hazleton

That's Jean peaking out on the right.

Lois,

One of the attractions at the Cabin was swimming in the nearby Nescopeck creek. (That's pronounced "crick.")

Foster and Martha at the Cabin

Foster and Martha with Geraldine and Adam Waldron
They are Donald's parents and Jeans inlaws

One Sunday Afternoon
 Spring 1942
 Jean & Donald
 (With Lois & Elwood)
 At Powder Hole
 Near Wapwallopen

Foster and Lorraine

January 24, 1943. Perhaps leaving for the Army?

Foster, Jr. home on leave with family. July 4, 1943.
Above, Mother and Dad.
Left, Jean, Junior, Lois, and Joyce.

Jean Waldron with
Alan Klase, 1947

Donna Waldron

Newlyweds with Foster and Martha

Joyce and Kenny's Wedding

Back row: Donald Waldron, stuffed rabbit standing in for Elwood Klase, who was hunting, Kenny, and Junior Front Row: Jean Waldron, Lois Klase, Joyce, and Lorraine Roth

Al Balliet, Best Man
with
Lois Klase. Matron of Honor